

ADVERTISING & SPONSORSHIP 2025/2026

ABOUT US

Founded in 1976 by Jim Connor and some friends as a local Saturday park team, the club has come a long way.

Now a semi-professional club competing in the Isthmian League South Central Division (Step 4 of the English Non-League Pyramid), the club continues to grow. In 2025 we finished third in the division, narrowly missing out on promotion after a close defeat in the Play-Off Final, our second final in three seasons.

In anticipation of more successful seasons ahead, the club is making major investments in its facilities, including the installation of a state-of-the-art artificial playing surface, and the expansion and improvement of amenities for both spectators and players.

Forty-nine years since its formation, the Connor family remains actively involved. Jim's son, James, now serves as the club's Chairman.

The club has its own home with excellent facilities for players and fans at Rectory Meadow, located in Hanworth Air Park, South West London: Park Road, Hanworth, TW13 6PN.
